Dear Mr. Zoller:

Thank you for speaking with me on November 24, 1999, regarding a newspaper article which contains critical information relative to my allegations of judicial misconduct on the part of a federal judge who presided over my federal lawsuit.

Enclosed please find my complaint of judicial misconduct along with said newspaper article attached thereto as Exhibit A. As per our conversation, I would be deeply grateful if you would channel this information to the appropriate source.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Alberta Davison
