

August 18, 1998

The Honorable Charles H. Taylor
Member of Congress
231 Cannon Building
Washington, DC 20515-3311

Dear Charles,

I could hardly believe your reply of August 16, to my letters of July 21, July 6, and even November 10 of last year. After my writing you that the House Judiciary Committee is completely non-responsive, you suggest that I write to them and tell them so!

The situation with the Committee involves much more than just my complaint. It was the subject of an entire law journal. It is a matter of great seriousness and should not be allowed to continue. The Committee has made a mockery of the 1980 Act. Again, I ask you to let me know what actions you will be taking to protect the public interest and to restore the integrity of the Committee.

I remain your friend and #1 fan, but I'm not happy with this run-around. I remind you that you were elected to be part of the solution rather than part of the problem.

Sincerely,

Ann Ryder
