

Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA)

From: Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA) [elena@judgewatch.org]
Sent: Wednesday, December 12, 2007 11:25 AM
To: 'bwittes@brookings.edu'
Subject: Thank you again! I genuinely -- look forward to our dialogue together – and appreciate that you first want to read what I sent, as it is serious and substantial.

You can reach me, at your convenience, whenever you're ready. If that is not before the new year, I hope it will be shortly thereafter so that we can begin 2008 the way true scholars must – by confronting evidence.

Throughout this holiday season, I will cherish the hope that you are just such a true scholar!

Thank you.

Elena

From: benjamin.wittes@gmail.com [mailto:benjamin.wittes@gmail.com] On Behalf Of Benjamin Wittes
Sent: Wednesday, December 12, 2007 11:11 AM
To: Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA)
Subject: Re: Thank you for your invitation... Bringing Accountability to the U.S. Supreme Court -- Starting with Reporters & Scholars

Thanks for your note. I'm crashing right now and will surely not have the time in the next week to go over the lengthy material you sent me. I will get in touch when I do with any questions.

Best wishes,
/b

On 12/12/07, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA) <elena@judgewatch.org> wrote:

Dear Mr. Wittes,

Thank you for your response, which I greatly appreciate. I am happy to clarify and to begin a constructive dialog on this vital subject.

As stated by my covermemo, you were a panelist at Syracuse Institute's September 18th symposium " Supreme Makeover: Inventing a New Model of Judicial Openness on the High Court?", along with Dahlia Lithwick and Tony Mauro.

12/18/2007