Dear Ms. Sassower:

This letter is in response to your correspondence of May 6, 1997. After our initial conversations and review of the documents, I attempted to contact you to advise you that there did not appear to be a basis to initiate a federal criminal investigation. I understand that you are now in contact with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Please do not hesitate to bring any further information to the FBI's attention.

Very truly yours,

MARY JO WHITE
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York
