revised rules, a copy of which we provided you under a September 24, 2009 covermemo entitled "Building Dialogue & Scholarship: 'Merit Selection' to the New York Court of Appeals." In pertinent part it stated:

"We invite your response for the benefit of the Commission [on Judicial Nomination], the Senate Judiciary Committee – and Assembly Judiciary Committee member Rory Lancman, whose bill [A-3866-A] to repeal Judiciary Law §63.2 so as to require the Commission to furnish the Governor with all "well qualified" candidates – consistent with the constitutional amendment – we seek to have re-introduced and approved in this legislative session."

To date, we have received no response from you.

By covermemo to Assemblyman Lancman, dated October 2, 2009 and entitled "'Reforming [the] Court of Appeals Nominating System' by Re-introducing A-3866-A & Other Legislation", we provided him with a copy of our September 24, 2009 covermemo and September 21, 2009 comment. In so doing, we highlighted that:

"CJA's comment expressly calls upon the Commission [on Judicial Nomination] to substantively respond, especially as to the unconstitutionality of Judiciary Law §63.2 in restricting the number of 'well qualified' candidates the Commission furnishes the Governor, which your bill corrects. It also calls upon the recipients of our coverletter to substantively respond in furtherance of 'building dialogue and scholarship' so that re-introduction of your bill and other essential legislation may be guided by accurate history and fidelity to the Constitution.

Should the Commission and other recipients not respond, such must be deemed a concession of the truth and accuracy of CJA's comment, propelling the critical statutory, if not constitutional, changes discussed therein."

A copy of our October 2, 2009 covermemo to Assemblyman Lancman– to which you are indicated recipients – is enclosed, as is an additional copy of our September 24, 2009 covermemo to you.

Should you disagree with the proposition that your failure to respond "must be deemed a concession of the truth and accuracy of CJA's comment", please advise Assemblyman Lancman and the Senate Judiciary Committee, providing the basis therefor.

Thank you.

RE: “Reforming [the] Court of Appeals Nominating System”
by Re-introducing Bill A-3866-A & Other Legislation

This follows up my recent phone conversations with your Deputy Chief of Staff, Jane Carey.

The Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA) supports your bill, A-3866-A, to repeal Judiciary Law §63.2 so as to require the Commission on Judicial Nomination to furnish the Governor with all “well qualified” candidates, and urges its re-introduction in this session as part of a legislative package “reforming [the] Court of Appeals nominating system”<sup>1</sup>.

Unlike Judiciary Law §63.2, which materially altered the 1977 constitutional amendment establishing the Commission, your bill is faithful to the amendment and to the will of the voters reflected therein. This important fact is highlighted by CJA’s September 21, 2009 comment to the Commission’s proposed revised rules and by our September 24, 2009 coverletter transmitting the comment to supporters of the 1977 amendment, including several who opposed your bill.<sup>2</sup>

CJA’s comment expressly calls upon the Commission to substantively respond, especially as to the unconstitutionality of Judiciary Law §63.2 in restricting the number of “well qualified” candidates the Commission furnishes the Governor, which your bill corrects. It also calls upon the recipients of our coverletter to substantively respond in furtherance of “building dialogue and scholarship” so that re-introduction of your bill and other essential legislation may be guided by accurate history and fidelity to the Constitution.

Should the Commission and other recipients not respond, such must be deemed a concession of the truth and accuracy of CJA's comment, propelling the critical statutory, if not constitutional, changes discussed therein.

I would be pleased to meet with you and answer any questions you may have about CJA's comment so as to assist you in "reforming [the] Court of Appeals nominating system" to ensure its fidelity to the People's will, expressed in their 1977 vote.

Thank you.

RE: Building Dialogue & Scholarship: "Merit Selection" to the New York Court of Appeals

As you were all proponents of the 1977 constitutional amendment to end judicial elections to the New York Court of Appeals and establish the Commission on Judicial Nomination, enclosed is the Center for Judicial Accountability's comment to the Commission's proposed revised rules.

We invite your response for the benefit of the Commission, the Senate Judiciary Committee – and Assembly Judiciary Committee member Rory Lancman, whose bill to repeal Judiciary Law §63.2 so as to require the Commission to furnish the Governor with all “well qualified” candidates – consistent with the constitutional amendment – we seek to have re-introduced and approved in this legislative session.

In any event, please advise as to whether you have files of historical materials germane to that 1977 constitutional amendment and the implementing Judiciary Law, including materials shedding light on the May 10, 1978 letter of then Assemblyman Charles Henderson to then Governor Hugh Carey – annexed to our comment as Exhibit D-1. If so, would you be willing to make them available to us for our further research in constructing an accurate historical record, for which we earnestly seek your collaboration.

Thank you.
