RE: Amicus and other assistance in securing review by the New York Court of Appeals of the public interest lawsuit, Elena Ruth Sassower, Coordinator of the Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc., acting pro bono publico, against Commission on Judicial Conduct of the State of New York (NY Co. #108551/99; Appellate Division, First Dept. #5638)

Dear Mr. Eisenberg:

As discussed, enclosed is a draft of my Jurisdictional Statement Pursuant to 22 NYCRR §500.2 (with an annexed draft Notice of Appeal), which will be served on May 1, 2002 "Law Day". I would be grateful for your comments. Insofar as my Jurisdictional Statement rests heavily on my motions in the Appellate Division, First Department for reargument and leave to appeal, a copy of my January 17, 2002 motion for reargument was transmitted to you under my February 6, 2002 coverletter. A copy of my February 20, 2002 motion for leave to appeal is enclosed.

Also enclosed are "hard copies" of my previously faxed letters to you, dated March 11, 2002 and March 12, 2002.

Please advise the law student intern who you indicated would be reviewing Justice Wetzel's DUE PROCESS-LESS filing injunction against me and the non-party Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA) on Friday, that he/she should feel free to telephone me with any questions in connection with that – or any other – aspect of this case in which my rights and those of the public are being so profoundly assaulted. I would be pleased to assist.

Thank you.

Yours for a quality judiciary,

ELENA RUTH SASSOWER, Coordinator
Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA)
