Dear Mr. Mulhauser:

Thank you for your thoughtful September 19th e-mail, advising of the cancellation of the ACLU's September 18th meeting because of the hurricane.

Please let me know what the ACLU's Legal Director decides about "mak[ing] up for the missed meeting" -- at least insofar as the agenda item relating to my request for legal assistance.

I would be most grateful if you would reiterate to him that I would be pleased to travel to Washington and appear personally before the Committee -- should its members wish to meet me and ask me questions. I would also be pleased to "stand by" and be available by phone -- if the Committee prefers.

For future reference, please note that my personal professional e-mail is judgewatchers@aol.com. Although e-mail sent to judgewartch@aol.com will reach me since that is the Center for Judicial Accountability's generic e-mail address, it has to be forwarded.

Thank you.

Elena Ruth Sassower
