RE: Your (On-Going) Responsibility to "Champion Basic Citizen Rights -- and the Vital Importance of Citizen Participation in Federal Judicial Selection" at Issue in the "Disruption of Congress" case of United States of America v. Elena Ruth Sassower:

(1) by individually or collectively submitting a statement to the Court in advance of the June 28th sentencing;

(2) by providing legal and amicus curiae assistance on the appeal, including to vindicate the elementary proposition that "a citizen's respectful request to testify at a public congressional hearing is not -- and must never be deemed to be -- 'disruption of Congress'" by challenging the constitutionality of D.C. Code §10-503.16(b)(4), as written and as applied;

(3) by alerting your media and academic contacts to this case.

"On June 28th, I am to be sentenced to up to six months in jail and a $500 fine. This, as a result of my wrongful conviction in April on the baseless and malicious 'disruption of Congress' charge -- for which, last year, I turned to each of you for help in "championing basic citizen rights -- and the vital importance of citizen action in federal judicial selection'."
