FROM:

MESSAGE:

A hard-copy of our May 18, 1992 letter to Senate Majority Leader Mitchell was mailed to you by priority mail last Friday, together with a copy of our critique.

As noted by the concluding paragraph in The New York Times editorial of May 7th:

"For the Senate, the lesson is to stop confirming the Administration's nominees on the assumption that the White House will eventually get its way; and to press hard for justices with proven respect for judging, for Congress and for the legislative process."
(emphasis added)

So that we can maximize the opportunity presented, please make review of our Senate Judiciary submission a priority. Based thereon, we would expect that People for the American Way would join us in calling for the kind of dramatic action which our letter to Senator Mitchell urges.
