RE: Postponement of June 1st sentencing date
United States of America v. Elena Ruth Sassower, M-4113-03
"Disruption of Congress"

Dear Judge Holeman:

Shortly after faxing my letter to you at 11:35 a.m., requesting a postponement of the June 1st sentencing, your chambers faxed me Ms. Westry's pre-sentence report.

Since then, however, I have received no further communication from you – nor from anyone else relative to my request for a "sufficient opportunity to review with my legal advisor, Mark Goldstone, the pre-sentence report". As stated by my letter, Mr. Goldstone is now out-of-town (indeed, thousands of miles away) until Monday night, May 31st. Nor have you – nor anyone else presumably knowledgeable of the statutory and court rule provisions pertaining to pre-sentence reports, such as Ms. McDaniel or the Assistant U.S. Attorneys – advised me of these provisions, as I requested – so that my rights might be protected in Mr. Goldstone's absence.

I have now succeeded, I believe, in locating the applicable rule – D.C. Superior Court Criminal Rule 32(b)(3)(A). I have only cursorily read it, but it expressly provides:

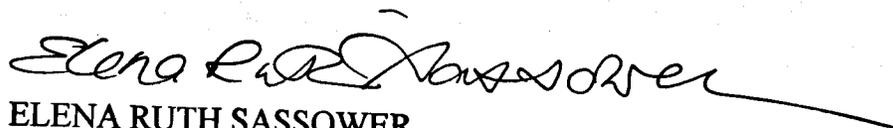

"The Court shall make available to the defendant through the defendant's counsel and to the counsel for the government a copy of the report of the presentence investigation a reasonable time before imposing sentence."
(emphasis added).

May 28, 2004

Throughout this litigation, I have invoked my right to the assistance of counsel, which I have secured by retention of Mr. Goldstone as my legal advisor. The "reasonable time" to which I am to be afforded under Rule 32(b)(3)(A) means "reasonable time" in consultation with Mr. Goldstone.

Unless you dispute this, I request that my unopposed request for adjournment be granted.

Thank you.
