Subject: RE: Amicus Curiae Support of US Supreme Court Cert Petition - "Disruption of Congress" Case

Hi, Elena- As my message from earlier today says, I do not plan to be involved with your case absent my being contacted by the local or national Guild leadership. If I decided to have any involvement with your case, it would be through direct communication between me and the Guild, and not directly with you.

As to your seeking suggestions for other possible amicus participants, I have no suggestions other than your considering the various civil liberties groups listed at <http://markskatz.com/links.htm> . Take care. Jon

Subject: Amicus Curiae Support of US Supreme Court Cert Petition - "Disruption of Congress" Case

Dear Jon,

Thank you for your prompt e-mail message and good wishes. I have already placed a call to my former legal advisor on the case, Mark Goldstone, who I assume is still active in the DC Chapter's Demonstration Support Committee, if not its ongoing chair/co-chair.

I would appreciate if you and he would both express strong support of my amicus request to the DC Chapter leadership, who I will contact directly. The DC Chapter -- and particularly the Demonstration Support Committee -- is uniquely situated to make a powerful contribution to the 2nd and 3rd appellate issues pertaining to the venue provision of the disruption of Congress statute and the statute's unconstitutionality. I urge you to review my analysis of what the DC Court of Appeals did with respect to those appellate issues, set forth at pages 7-10 of my January 2, 2007 petition for rehearing, rehearing en banc, motion to vacate for fraud & lack of jurisdiction, disqualification/disclosure & transfer. I hope you still have the "hard copy" I sent you -- and the underlying appellate papers. In any event, they are all conveniently posted on CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org -- accessible via the sidebar panel, "Disruption of Congress-The Appeal".

At your convenience, I'd like to discuss your ideas as to who I might contact for further amicus participation, etc. May I send you my draft cert petition for your review?

Thanks.

Elena
