

From: JDrewEsq@aol.com
To: Judgewatchers@aol.com
Cc: JDrewEsq@aol.com
Subject: Fwd: DC-NLG
Date: Thu, 5 Jul 2007 7:08 pm

This was sent to Judgewatch on 6/22/07. I am resending it now to your correct email address, Judgewatchers. Sorry for the error. J.D.

See what's free at AOL.com.

Attached Message

From: JDrewEsq@aol.com
To: Judgewatch@aol.com
Cc: JDrewEsq@aol.com
Subject: DC-NLG
Date: Fri, 22 Jun 2007 8:06:07 PM Eastern Daylight Time

Dear Elena Sassower, Your request has been discussed by members of the Demonstration Support Committee and by other members of the D. C. Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild. We regret to inform you that no one in the D.C. Chapter of the NLG has volunteered or is otherwise available to prepare and file an amicus brief in support of your cert petition to the U. S. Supreme Court. As you are aware, several chapter members have already expended great amounts of time on your case in connection with your trial, post trial issues, and your appeal. Because of other time commitments by these chapter members who have worked on your case in the past, and also by others in the chapter who could properly prepare an amicus brief in your case, we are unable to assist you. You know of course that in petitions to the U. S. Supreme Court you are not restricted to an attorney licensed in the District of Columbia. You may wish to contact our national office, National Lawyers Guild, 132 Nassau Street, Suite 922, New York, N.Y. 10038, telephone (212) 679-5100, to see what referral or other assistance they may be able to provide. We continue in the view that an injustice has been done to you and wish you well in this new stage of your case.

Jim Drew, Demonstration Support Committee, D. C. Chapter, NLG.

See what's free at AOL.com.