Subject: Fwd: DC Chapter's Amicus Curiae Participation before US Supreme Court in "Disruption of Congress" Case
Date: Fri, 22 Jun 2007 5:41 pm

Dear Mr. Drew,

I look forward to speaking with you directly about the D.C. National Lawyers Guild's important amicus curiae participation at the U.S. Supreme Court in the "disruption of Congress" case. I will be available on Monday or whatever day next week is convenient for you.

My latest draft of the cert petition is posted on CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org, accessible via the top panel "Latest News". That is where my June 15th memo to the D.C. National Lawyers Guild is also posted, along with my other requests for amicus curiae and other assistance. Among these, my today's memo to Ralph Nader and a constellation of liberal and conservative organizations, enclosing POINT III of my appellant's brief challenging the constitutionality of the "disruption of Congress" statute, as written and as applied. If you -- and other D.C. Guild leaders -- have not read POINT III, I urge you to do so.

Thank you.

Hi, Elena- I don't maintain the information you seek. I am not a guild leader.

I understand that DC Guild board member Jim Drew (JDrewEsq@aol.com is the last E-address I have for him) plans to send you a reply to your request for an amicus brief.

Thanks. Jon
