RE: United States of America v. Elena Ruth Sassower, M-4113-03
"Disruption of Congress"
The content of your "ex parte in camera" submission

Dear Mr. Mendelsohn,

I hereby request that you identify the content of the completely "ex parte in camera" submission you made to the Court in response to Judge Milliken's January 14, 2004 deadline – as to which you did not see fit to even provide me with a copy of your transmitting coverletter.

Unless a coverletter identifying the transmitted documents did not accompany your submission, please furnish me with a copy without delay.

It is my position that whether as a coverletter or otherwise, compliance with Judge Milliken's directive on December 3, 2003 required you to provide a superseding response to the 22 requests for "documents and tangible objects", enumerated by my August 12, 2003 First Discovery Demand. Further, as to records requested by items #5-10, 12, 16, 17, 22 of my Discovery Demand – which, without elaboration, your previous October 3, 2003 response claimed did "not exist"<sup>1</sup> -- you were required to identify whether, upon completing the search Judge Milliken directed, such records as you were continuing to purport did "not exist" had been destroyed. As to this issue, Judge Milliken expressly recognized:

"The judge is obliged to look into the destruction of discoverable material and then assess its impact under pertinent authorities."
(Tr. 38, Ins. 15-17)

<sup>1</sup> See my October 30, 2003 motion to enforce my discovery rights and the prosecution's disclosure obligations, pp. 20-24.
