RE: Elena Ruth Sassower v. United States of America, #07-228
(1) Return of Extra Copies of Petition for a Writ of Certiorari
& Petition for Rehearing;
(2) Status of October 9, 2007 Motion

Dear Mr. Atkins:

This follows up my phone conversation at approximately 2:33 p.m. on Thursday, December 20, 2007 with case analyst Eric Fossum, who thereafter transferred me to your phone line, on which I left a voice mail message. I have received no return call.

I herein reiterate the request I made to Mr. Fossum and my voice mail message for you that the Clerk's Office return to me the extra copies of the 40 copies of my petition for a writ of certiorari and the 40 copies of my petition for rehearing in the above-entitled case that are not needed for archival purposes.

As stated, following the Court's 1998 denial of the petition for rehearing in Doris L. Sassower v. Hon. Guy Mangano, et al., (#98-106), the Clerk's Office returned to us – at my request – the excess copies of the cert petition, supplemental petition, and petition for rehearing in that case.

I take this opportunity to note that I have still received no notification of any disposition of my October 9, 2007 motion, which the Clerk's Office received from me, but did not docket. This includes the return of the original and ten copies of the motion which I furnished the Clerk's Office pursuant to the Court's Rule 21(c). What became of that original and the ten copies?

Please advise.

Thank you.

Yours for a quality judiciary,
