Since I did not receive the usual automated acknowledgments from Mr. Okrent's office (and from Metro) to the attached superseding June 17th complaint, which I e-mailed two days ago, I am resending it. Hard copies for Mr. Okrent, Mr. Mulaney, and Mr. Hernandez were hand-delivered to The Times yesterday, June 19th

Meantime -- and should you prefer not to open the attached complaint -- it is accessible from the homepage of CJA's website, www.judgewatch.com, under the "Paper Trail Documenting the Corruption of Federal Judicial Selection/Confirmation..."

Dear Mr. Bovino,

This responds to your 10:12 PM e-mail yesterday.

In view of your apparent refusal to even read CJA's June 17th complaint -- or at least to acknowledge having read it -- I have substantially revised it. Attached is the superseding complaint -- a hard copy of which will be delivered tomorrow.

If it is NOT your intention to read this superseding complaint, please immediately pass it on to Mr. Okrent, to whom it is addressed.

Thank you.
