RE: Informing the Voters: Senator Hillary Rodham Clinton's readily-verifiable corruption in office, as evidenced by her record on judicial selection and discipline -- concealed by John Spencer and an election-rigging press

Dear Ms. McFarland:

The Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA) is a national, non-profit, non-partisan citizens' organization, based in New York, working to ensure that the processes of judicial selection and discipline are effective and meaningful. These are critical processes in which U.S. senators have important participatory and monitoring roles.

This letter is occasioned by yesterday's New York Times article, "Eyes Are on Mrs. Clinton, but Fists Are on Each Other", by Patrick Healy, reporting that you and Mr. Spencer "have been locked in a destructive political tango, and it is undermining [your respective] chances to exploit the stop-Hillary passions and draw money nationally to [your respective] campaigns". The article goes on to say that each of you is "searching for a knockout punch" against the other and, further, that you are "fuzzy about how [you] would be a different senator or a better senator than Mrs. Clinton".
