RE: Informing the Voters: Attorney General Eliot Spitzer's readily-verifiable corruption in office – covered up by an election-rigging press

Dear Mr. Faso:

The Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA) is a national, non-profit, non-partisan citizens' organization, based in New York, working to ensure that the processes of judicial selection and discipline are effective and meaningful.

This letter is occasioned by your campaign issue of "Reforming Albany" – appearing on your website, www.johnfaso2006.com – pledging that if elected to be our next governor, you "will advocate changing the way Albany operates", free it from the stranglehold of "special interests", and put "The GOP...four square for reform in state government".

Please be advised that if you are truly intent on bringing reform to our state government – not just using it rhetorically to entice voters – you can demonstrate it during your campaign by publicizing Attorney General Spitzer's direct and active role in re-structuring systematic corruption in judicial
