Elena Sassower, Director Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc.*Corruption within the Attorney General's own Office

Each of the AG candidates was sent -- by fax, e-mail, and certified mail/rrr -- a June 20, 2006 letter from the non-partisan, non-profit citizens' organization, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA). The letter summarized CJA's DIRECT, FIRST-HAND EXPERIENCE with New York's current and past Attorneys General, going back nearly a decade and a half. It recounted that "New York's Attorneys General engage in a modus operandi of litigation fraud to defend state judges and the Commission on Judicial Conduct, sued for corruption, where they have NO legitimate defense -- and are rewarded by fraudulent judicial decisions". The letter asked the candidates whether, if elected, they would confront the DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE of this corruption, established by CASEFILES -- and take appropriate corrective steps, including criminal prosecutions of the involved Attorneys General, Eliot Spitzer among them. There has been NO response from any of the Attorney General candidates to this serious and substantial June 20th letter. Is this the kind of responsibility and responsiveness that voters can expect from them if they are elected Attorney General? The June 20th letter is posted on CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org, accessible via the sidebar panel, "Elections 2006: Informing the Voters" -- under the heading "Searching for Champions". It is a must-read for reporters questioning the candidates -- and, by their questioning, they should confirm from these would-be Attorneys General that they each read its 4 pages, its transmitted 15 pages of substantiating enclosures -- and examined the referred-to casefile proof posted on CJA's website. CJA's website also includes -- on the same "Elections 2006: Informing the Voters" webpage -- an August 25th memo to New York media, and it, too, is a must-read for reporters, further summarizing the politically-explosive casefile evidence of systemic governmental corruption here at issue. On behalf of the public interest, thank you. Elena Sassower, Director Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. Judy*Go Mark Green

Question: Mark Green is a brilliant crusader and reformer who cares about the poor and all New Yorkers. He's consistently advocated reform in campaign spending so the little guy can run. Mark, do you have the funding and enough backing from the party machine to get over? (God, I sure hope he does . . .)
