Attached is a summarizing article about the bogus criminal charge that Senator Chambliss initiated against me for “disruption of Congress” – appearing in the current issue of our local New York newspaper, The Westchester Guardian.

When will Georgia voters be favored with a story? Please forward me the names and numbers of supervising editors so that I may speak with them directly.

I am reachable throughout the weekend, by cell, 646-220-7987.

Thank you.

Following up the voice mail message I left for you yesterday morning about the A.P. story “Chambliss challenges explosion subpoena” by Russ Bynum in yesterday’s Atlanta Journal-Constitution, enclosed is my self-explanatory letter to him, sent yesterday afternoon.

As I have not heard back from Mr. Bynum, I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss Senator Chambliss’ flagrant disrespect for fundamental citizen rights and his facilitating role in the corruption of federal judicial selection -- to which I can attest from direct, first-hand-experience and by a mountain of documentary proof.

Such misconduct by Senator Chambliss, which would support a criminal prosecution against him, must be made known to Georgia voters so that they can exercise an informed vote.

Thank you.
