RE: Request Pursuant to Assembly Rule XV "Freedom of Information" for Unidentified Assembly Resolutions Passed by Voice Vote on March 29, 2013

Dear Ms. Marilla:

Following up our conversation a short time ago, this is to request a copy of the resolutions which Assembly Speaker Silver held in his hand, but did not identify, on March 29, 2013, in the staged finale to the Assembly floor proceedings on the budget, which was, as follows:

[video: at 11:05:20]

Assembly Speaker Silver: Mr. Morelli.

Assembly Majority Leader Morelli: Mr. Speaker, are there any resolutions before the House?

Assembly Speaker Silver: I have a number of resolutions, here. And I would move that, uh, all those in, that we take them all together. All in favor, signify by saying Aye – Aye. Opposed, Nay. Ayes have it. Resolutions are adopted.

Please also furnish the record of the Assembly vote thereon – especially as it is unclear whether the voice vote thereon was unanimous.

Your prompt attention would be greatly appreciated. Please advise, by e-mail, as to the cost.

Thank you.

Yours for a quality judiciary,
