

Reader comment on: N.Y. Judge Orders Himself a Raise

The greed of the state court judges is just unbelievable. So making $136,000 a year is not enough? Give me a break. Where do they think the salaries of these "public servants" comes from? It's from the tax payers - most of whom don't make anywhere near $136,000 a year. Now with the slow economy, layoffs and falling wages these over paid fat cats want us tax payers to dig into our pockets and give them a raise. No way! How many of us would switch places with a judge who has a cushy job and makes this kind of money? I hope the legislature and governor stand firm on this.
