MESSAGE:

Dear Mr. Blattner:

This fax confirms my telephone message earlier today.

I will be coming down to Washington on Thursday and would appreciate speaking with you or someone from Senator Kennedy's office relative to the critique we submitted to the Senate Judiciary Committee last May.

As you can see from the enclosed Gannett newspaper editorial of Sept. 6th, pressure is building to confirm Andrew O'Rourke, as well as other nominees to the federal court.

The documentary evidence in our critique establishes that the screening process has failed to protect the public from unfit judicial nominees. We believe that Senator Kennedy would be especially interested in our six-month investigation--and in our call for a halt all judicial confirmations based thereon.

Please advise us ASAP if an appointment can be scheduled.
