RE: My June 14, 2011 letter to Chief Administrative Judge Pfau:

Dear Mr. Kenny,

Enclosed is my June 14, 2011 letter to Chief Administrative Judge Pfau – a copy of which I hand-delivered on that date to Mel Harris at the Appellate Division, Second Department for Presiding Justice Prudenti. I had expected to also hand-deliver your copy to you at the Appellate Term, but by the time I finished there, it was nearly 5:00 p.m.

You are mentioned twice in the letter: in the first paragraph of page 6.

By letter dated June 16, 2011, Chief Administrative Judge Pfau advised that she had forwarded the matter to the Commission on Judicial Conduct. A copy of her letter is enclosed.

Finally, I enclose a copy of my June 10, 2011 letter to White Plains City Court Chief Clerk Patricia Lupi – to which you are an indicated recipient. Her landlord/tenant clerk, Jacqueline Rodriquez, telephoned me on June 13th to say that she would let me know when I would be able to review the White Plains City Court files I had requested. I have not heard from her since.

Should the files be requisitioned by the Commission on Judicial Conduct, by Chief Administrative Judge Pfau, by Presiding Justice Prudenti, or by the Appellate Division, Second Department, I request to be notified so that I might assist in organizing them for transmittal.

Thank you.

Yours for a quality judiciary,
