Dear Assistant Solicitor General Brodie,

Thank you! I will send you the stipulation tomorrow morning – following which I will bind, in three volumes, the single copy of the record on appeal that I have been working from – and mail it to you with the appellate brief. You should have it by Tuesday, July 10th.

Suffice to say, I am quite exhausted from the hard labor of perfecting the appeal. As the order to show cause, with preliminary injunction and TRO, will be another herculean task – and I want you to have adequate time to review it in advance of argument thereon before the Appellate Division – I am beginning to think that it would make more sense to push the filing of the appeal and presentment of the order to show cause to Tuesday, July 17th. I would hope to e-mail you the drafted order to show cause by Thursday, July 12th.

Are you available on July 17th?

Please advise.

Thank you.

Elena Sassower

Dear Ms. Sassower,

Thank you for the email update. Again, I will address your questions and issues in the order they appear.

1. I have reviewed the three added pages, and they appear to be in order. Thank you for adding them. (Note: I am unable to view volume 1 of the record on your website. You may wish to check the link. Volumes 2 and 3 are viewable.)
2. I agree with your proposal to put an "X" on page 581.
3. We are agreed on excluding defendants' affidavits of service. Defendants' Answer may therefore stay where you have placed it.
4. You may include my name and phone number on the cover as proposed.
