WESTCHESTER COUNTY CLERK

Timothy C. Idoni
County Clerk

August 8, 2006

Elena Ruth Sassower
16 Lake Street
White Plains, New York 10603

Dear Ms. Sassower,

I am in receipt of your letter to Westchester County Clerk Timothy C. Idoni and have reviewed case file #19841-05 to determine the status of the documents you referenced.

The declaratory judgment of August 1, 2006 is now available via the computerized casebook system. The delay was due to our processing procedures which include data entry, followed by careful review of all judgments entered for accuracy, prior to scanning the document into our computer system. The declaratory judgment is a judgment filed with this office in accordance with law, pursuant to the order of July 7, 2006 dismissing the claims. Judge Loehr's clerk was unaware of the judgment because it was filed by a party to the case and signed by the County Clerk.

The motion papers considered by Judge Loehr when he ruled on the motion of July 6, 2006 were docketed as "Supporting Pleadings" on the same date. The computer system apparently had difficulty displaying this document due to its size of 729 pages. The originals of these documents are available for your review in the case file maintained by our office.

I trust that I have answered your questions regarding the docketing of this case to your satisfaction. If there is any way I can be of further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

John G. Allen
Deputy County Clerk
