for letting me know. Needless to say, I've been up since the middle of the night working to get a summary ready for your use. You have a HUGELY important, history-making job here that will achieve, once and for all, meaningful good-government budget reform. It is a privilege to be able to help you, as much as possible.

I will send you the drafts of subsequent questions, as I complete them. I would hope to have the final presentation ready this evening – so that you will have time to circulate it to build support from other legislators – and the press.

Thank you, again.

Neither the Senate nor the Assembly are convening today. Whether they will convene tomorrow or later in the week is not yet decided.

Subject: Part 2: Info to Assist You in Your History-Making Presentations on the Senate & Assembly Floor. But Will They Be Today or Tomorrow?

Dear Senator Latimer & Assembly Members Buchwald and Katz,

It would appear that the Senate & Assembly are not coming back into session to vote on the budget this afternoon – as was originally reported – but, rather tomorrow afternoon. Is this correct?

Meantime, here's my draft of "Question #2":
