Subject: Why is Acting Delaware Co. District Attorney Hubbard uncontested in his race for D.A.? -- and what is his response to the conflict-of-interest/misconduct complaint filed against him?

TO: Sam Pollak, Managing Editor/The Daily Star

This follows my brief conversation with you earlier this afternoon, following a more lengthy conversation with Publisher Scheller.

The two questions raised by the subject line of this e-mail are important election stories for Delaware County – relevant, as well, to the three other counties covered by The Daily Star – Otsego, Schoharie, and Chenango Counties, whose district attorneys, though not up for re-election this year, are the subject of the SAME conflict-of-interest/misconduct complaint as Acting D.A. Hubbard.

Everything is laid out in CJA's EXPLOSIVE October 14, 2016 conflict-of-interest/misconduct complaint against each of them – and New York's other district attorneys -- filed with the eight disciplinary committees of New York's four judicial departments. For your convenience, the direct link to the webpage for the complaint, posting its exhibits and links to all its referred-to evidentiary proof, is here: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/budget/budget-2016-17/10-14-16-complaint-vs-soares-etc.htm>.

The direct link to CJA's webpage for "Making the 2016 District Attorney Elections Competitive" -- listing the uncontested Delaware County district attorney race -- is here: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/budget/budget-2016-17/2016-da-elections.htm>.

Below is the listing, differently organized, to facilitate a statewide story by your Albany correspondent, Joe Mahoney, who I called at Publisher Scheller's suggestion. He was on deadline, but I am looking forward to speaking with him tomorrow.
