Dear Ms. Gourley,

I much respect and appreciate your e-mail. I especially like that you say "Thank you for following up"; that you have furnished the name of Metro Editor Wendell Jamieson, and that you have "asked him to respond to [me] directly".

I'll be back in touch after I hear from Mr. Jamieson on this matter of such importance to governmental integrity and the People of New York.

Again, thank you.

Dear Ms. Sassower:

Thank you for following up. While we don't have inside knowledge, it seems like your letter to the editor is not going to be printed.

We have shared your concerns with the metro editor, Wendell Jamieson, and have asked him to respond to you directly.

Best,

Meg Gourley
