FROM: Elena Ruth Sassower, Coordinator

Dear Mr. Tagliaferri:

This confirms the fact that you have again refused to identify who your editors were on your November 2nd story--and have told me to "speak with Mr. Beaupre".

Unfortunately, I am informed by Mr. Beaupre's secretary that he is out of town until Friday.

I believe a meeting with Mr. Sherlock would be most appropriate at this juncture--and, therefore, request that the copy of the critique and compendium of exhibits which I hand-delivered to you last May--be delivered to his office, together with the related correspondence you received from us, including our May 18th letter to Senate Majority Leader Mitchell, our May 19th letter to ABA President D'Alemberte, and our May 26th letter to City Bar President Feerick.

In the face of your deliberate suppression of this major story for almost six months--and your incompetent November 2nd story which seeks the credit for our workproduct--no thanks are in order.

Elena Ruth Sassower
