RE: CJA's public interest ad "Restraining 'Liars in the Courtroom' and on the Public Payroll"

Dear Mr. Robbins:

Following up the telephone message left on your answering machine at 9:00 this morning, transmitted herewith is CJA's ad, revised so as to disclose what you termed the "undisclosed facts" in the four paragraphs to which you objected on Thursday, at 4:40 p.m. I have spent a tremendous amount of time since then revising the ad so as to meet with your approval. As you can see, I have, additionally, included quotes from the litigation files -- which you also asked that I do.

As I then predicted, the ad is now considerably longer. Indeed, it reaches the maximum length of 20 and 3/4 inches. Please let us hear back from you ASAP -- since the Advertising Department requires the finished ad by 12 noon tomorrow -- for Wednesday's paper.

Thank you.

Yours for a quality judiciary,
and an informed public,

ELENA RUTH SASSOWER, Coordinator
Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc.
