Dear Ms. Fritch:

Following up our telephone conversation last Monday in which you expressed interest in seeing my mother's cert petition, I enclose a copy. The retaliatory nature of her unlawful suspension and its perpetuation--now going on four years--is reflected, inter alia, in the "Questions Presented" (Question #3 specifically referring to "judicial whistleblowers"), as well as at pages 3-7, the "Procedural Background" to the suspension and pages 15-16 of the "Reasons for Granting the Writ.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours for a quality judiciary,

ELENA RUTH SASSOWER, Coordinator

Enclosure

P.S. The enclosed Petition unrepeivocally debunks & undermines the view reflected in your Times' article appearing today that the Court of Appeals is
"liberal when it comes to civil rights"
(Week in Review, p 16) Indeed, the case of my mother's suspension demonstrates that where civil rights issues
touch a state's own self-interest, our highest state court can only be viewed as ^{deliberately} ~~intentionally~~ constitutional guarantees.
