RE: Securing appropriate review by The New York Times Company
Legal Department

Dear Mr. Freeman:

Inasmuch as you responded so promptly to my November 30th letter to you, I had expected an expeditious response to my follow-up December 14th letter. However, I have received nothing.

So that I might be guided accordingly, kindly confirm that a response from you or from Mr. Watson will be forthcoming – and the approximate date.

As tomorrow marks the year anniversary of my release from the six months incarceration for “disruption of Congress”, I would appreciate confirmation by then of such forthcoming response and/or the response itself.

Thank you.

Yours for a quality judiciary
and responsible journalism,
