Yesterday morning we sent the following e-mail to you and are awaiting your response. Please e-mail us back this morning or anytime today! Thank you.

We at the Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. re working on a submission of a nomination to Project Censored.

Do you have any more specific guidelines, besides those provided in the postscript on p. 335 of Project Censored's 1996 Yearbook? If so, please e-mail us as soon as possible.

Also, is a nomination limited to national stories, or will you consider suppression of significant state and regional stories, particularly where suppression is by a newspaper of national circulation such as the New York Times?

Our e-mail address is probono69.aol.com
To the attention of Beth Pearson. Thank you again.
