how will readers then "judge" Mr. Faso? Will you be removing the penultimate paragraph in its 2-sentence entirety? Are there any alternatives?

Nonetheless, we thank you for running this important letter.

thanks! i will run this on sunday.
 we actually remove the titles (mr, etc) as our style so thats ok.
 the only thing that i cant include is the reference to the website, nothing personal, just our standard.
 everything else is good to go =)

Dear Larissa,

Here is our proposed Letter to the Editor. It is 217 words, which I hope you will allow as it includes:

- (a) the 12-word introduction "In 'Enabling Eliot's Illusion: Lessons of the '06 NY governor race' (3/17/08)" AND
- (b) our respectful use of the word "Mr.", ten times, before the names of Faso and Spitzer.

Otherwise, the word count is 195.

Thank you, again

Elena
