The requested insertion of the word "long" in the 2nd paragraph (1st sentence) would be so that it reads: "...to expose what the media had long known, but not reported:"

Thanks.

Subject: Two minor changes -- Letter to the Editor -- "LEARNING THE 'LESSONS'"

Dear Larisa,

It's not yet 2 p.m. May I make two minor changes?

(1) inserting the word "long" in the 2nd paragraph (1st sentence); and

(2) reordering the words "to Faso" in the 3rd paragraph (2nd sentence) – so that it begins "We wrote this to Faso in a letter...", rather than "We wrote this in a letter to Faso"

Thanks.

P.S. I assume this is the letter to be published – and that its identification of me will reflect Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. [the "we" referred to in the letter]

RE: LEARNING THE "LESSONS"

In "Enabling Eliot's Illusion: Lessons of the '06 NY governor race" (March 17), John Faso writes about the media's "credulousness" and failure to analyze Eliot Spitzer's campaign claims and record in the 2006 gubernatorial election.

Yet, Faso is silent about his own failure, as the 2006 Republican nominee, to expose what the media had long known, but not reported: Spitzer's record of corruption as Attorney General – beginning with the hoax of his "public integrity unit" and modus operandi of litigation fraud to defeat citizen lawsuits challenging the very governmental corruption his "public integrity unit" was neither
