

Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA)

From: Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA) [elena@judgewidth.org]
Sent: Monday, March 24, 2008 5:20 PM
To: 'gbirnbaum@nypost.com'; 'fud31@aol.com'; 'klnypost@aol.com'
Subject: GIVING YOU THE LEAD: NY Post Letter to the Editor, published yesterday, urges media probe of Spitzer's corruption as Attorney General --
Attachments: 3-19-08-original-ltr-to-editor-nypost.pdf; 6-26-06-ltr-to-faso-21pp.pdf

TO: NEW YORK POST:
 Greg Birnbaum, Political Editor
 Fredric Dicker, Albany Bureau
 Ken Lovett, Albany Bureau

Have you read it?

The published letter highlights the hoax of Mr. Spitzer's "public integrity unit" and his modus operandi of litigation fraud to defeat citizen lawsuits challenging the very governmental corruption his "public integrity unit" was neither investigating nor prosecuting – both long suppressed by an election-rigging press. It states that media probe of Mr. Spitzer's record as Attorney General would "propel systemic reforms more sweeping than any Spitzer...might have advanced."

Attached is the originally-submitted, more expansive, letter to the editor, entitled "Learning the 'Lessons'", together with CJA's June 26, 2006 letter to John Faso, referred to therein.

The shortened letter to the editor, published by the Post, is on CJA's website, www.judgewidth.org, most conveniently accessible via our sidebar panel "Press Suppression" which links to a "Special Topic" about "Spitzer's Media Enablers". The direct link is: <http://www.judgewidth.org/web-pages/press-suppression/special-topic-spitzer-media-enablers.htm>.

If you are not going to investigate and report on the readily-verifiable, major story highlighted by CJA's letter to the editor, published in YOUR OWN NEWSPAPER, please advise as to the reason – and whether you will refer it on to other journalists who will.

Thank you.

Elena Sassower, Director
 Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA)