Commission on Judicial Conduct of the State of New York (NY Co.
#108551/99: Appellate Division, First Department: September 2001
Term)

RE: Adjournment/Stay of Appeal to October 2001 Term Pending
Determination of Appellant's August 17, 2001 Motion

DATE: August 16, 2001

This acknowledges receipt of your fax at 4:30 p.m. today, agreeing to stipulate to an adjournment. Upon telephoning the Appellate Division (212-340-0423) to inquire whether your fax was sufficient or whether I needed to prepare a formal stipulation, the Clerk, Dan Ramos, upon checking the just-released September calendar, told me that neither your fax nor a stipulation was necessary. This is because due to the volume of appeals before the Appellate Division following the summer recess -- with preference given to criminal matters -- the appeal has been randomly "kicked over" to the October Term.

By this letter, I will provide the Appellate Division with written confirmation of your request for 15 minutes for oral argument, as well as of my own request for 15 minutes.
