Dear Mr. Duff,

This is a copy of my letter to the Clerk dated February 7, 1997 regarding my judicial misconduct complaint filed against the Honorable Justice Kennedy. I respectfully request that you follow up on this.

For the record, I still have received no reply from you to my letter dated December 19, 1996 in which I specifically requested that you address each of my deepest concerns. I believe you owe me a reply.

Once again, in the event you have not brought the previously communicated these most serious and potentially scandalous matters to the attention of the Honorable Chief Justice, I strongly urge you to do so.

Sincerely,

Lester Swartz
