Dear Elena:

I want to thank you for your hospitality. I so enjoyed meeting you and discussing with you matters - that are a priority with me. Thank you for sharing your knowledge and experiences - and also that of your parents. I also enjoyed meeting your mother. What a dear, caring and talented lady. What a disgrace, how she was abused for standing up against a corrupt legal system.

Elena, sorry for not contacting you earlier. You are in a word - intense. (I was a little exhausted from my visit and needed to recharge my batteries; also had to catch up on a few things from while I was gone.) But Elena you are much, much more than just intense. I found you to be caring, concerned, dedicated, serious (maybe a little too serious - but I understand the pressure you are under) and very talented. You are doing such great work Elena. Almost single handedly, largely unappreciated, mostly ignored, and even shunned by the powers that be. You are very courageous and very strong Elena. I thought your speech/talk at the NY-JAIL was very good and measured. I thought the event was a very good start and was very pleased with the efforts and enthusiasm of Bill Gage and Ron Loebner.

I am working on the proposal and should have that to send to you early next week. I have also been doing some research on the C-CJP for the paper/study. I have not had the time to finish your critique, but plan on completing that this weekend and will then want to discuss that further with you. Has there been any reply from the NY-CJC, or AG-ES? What have you done re bringing the recusal motion? Also let me know promptly what you get the hearing date for your appeal. I had a long talk with Ron Branson re supporting you at the appeal; he agreed that C-JAIL, NY-JAIL and our entire organization should lend our support for the hearing and marshal supporter to attend. We are still discussing filing an amicus brief, and are leaning toward doing that.

Did you get your couch? I hope it was better than you wished, as you were waiting a long time. Let me know. Also get that kitchen cabinet fixed. You need to devote more attention to yourself, but I know you are busy. Have you been riding your bike? How's the weather? Have you been going to your exercise class (with Sonya)? Take better care of yourself Elena.

Did I leave my sunglasses with you? I think they might be in that black shoulder bag (Common Law in London?) that you let me borrow. They might be in a case. Let me know; no big deal.

Finally, just got my renewal from Brill's CONTENT. On the front of the envelope it states "HOW WILL YOU KNOW WHO TO TRUST?" I did not even open it. Talk with you soon Elena. Keep up the good work. Gary.
