

May 23, 2009

Robert Tembeckjian
Commission on Judicial Conduct

Re: op-ed in NYT

Dear Mr. Tembeckjian;

Please explain why my complaint against Judge Kevin K. Ryan was dropped by your staff. Was it by an underlings? Does judicial misconduct include reversing the order of closing arguments, meeting privately with opposing counsel during court appearances, knowing allowing totally false testimony about Police involvement and then not allowing Police testimony.

Much more violations of the code of judicial conduct by Judge Ryan are in my complaint in your office. Is it acceptable to you that a Judge Ryan moved up a scheduled court appearance to the time that I am in cardiac intensive by calling the hospital to tell me to check out and come to court that day? (Hospital does not put phone calls into cardiac intensive care) That this can be corrected on appeal is not an excuse for your office to condone this unethical conduct.

Sincerely yours,
Terence Finnan

CC: exposecorruptcourts.com, NYT