Dear Mr. Finnan:

Mr. Tembeckjian has asked me to respond to your letter dated May 23, 2009, concerning the disposition of your complaint.

By law, every decision with respect to a complaint is made by the Commission in its entirety, and not by staff. The Commission carefully considered your allegations concerning the judge who handled your case. Pursuant to Section 45 of the Judiciary Law, the Commission's records and proceedings are confidential except as to matters in which public discipline is rendered. Accordingly, I am unable to provide any additional information with respect to the Commission's consideration of your complaint.

Very truly yours,
