Sir,

On Friday Feb. 1, 2002 I called you long distance. You told me you did not remember me or my problem regarding Judicial Misconduct and the 9th Circuit. I find this hard to believe. In the past we have spoken on the phone three times. I have written you three times, this will be the fourth. To help your memory, you called Gwen Baptiste (9th Circuit Clerk) on my behalf because she continued to deny receiving my Judicial Misconduct Complaint. I will not give up. I think it was rude when you began interrupting me by saying, "Have a nice day" over and over. Enclosed once again is my file I sent you before.

What are you going to do in regards to this problem?

Have you purviewed my file?

You told me on January 3, 2002 that meetings were scheduled, what happened?

Sincerely,

John Geremia
