Re: Complaint Of Judicial Misconduct Or Disability
Judge Joan M. Azrack - Amended Complaint according to Letter March 14, 2024

4. Brief Statement of Facts. Attach a brief statement of the specific facts on which the claim of judicial misconduct or disability is based.

See annexed to this brief the letter addressed to Chief Judge Debra Ann Livingston because the "Chief judges of the U.S. Circuit Courts of Appeal preside over any three-judge panel to which he or she is assigned, preside over meetings of the circuit council. Reviews complaints of judicial misconduct and disability, and serves on the Judicial Conference and the job of chief judge or justice calls for an individual not only to see that administrative tasks in the court are carried out, but also to address the needs of the public, attorneys, court staff, and fellow judges." See link https://ballotpedia.org/Chief_Justice

Therefore, Chief Judge Livingston is liable for all the gross violation of the Laws, rules, impropriety, and misconduct in the Second Circuit Courts and directly from Judge Joan M. Azrack improper actions and/or inactions, failure to keep with the Rule of Law, failure to provide fair and impartial administration of justice, lead discrimination, and retaliation, and prevent "All persons" from "having their day in court" regardless of race, sex, religion, national origin, or socioeconomic means, for all the reasons above the complainant undersigned request the Chief Judge Livingston direct intervention.

Complainant/Plaintiff Lidia M. Orrego requests the Judicial Council of the Second Circuit intervention under 28 U.S. Code § 332 (d) (3): "Unless an impediment to the administration of justice is involved, regular business of the courts need not be referred to the council.
