Dear Ms. Spatz:

First you distort my words in conversation with your Office and call my supervisors in the 2nd Department to raise a bizarre question to suggest that I am a violent unstable person. Now you are distorting the import of this email below to continue to avoid dealing with the wrongdoing which falls under your jurisdiction and keep putting everything back in my lap. ENOUGH is ENOUGH.

Surely, as Inspector General, you do not think the wrongdoing in my case in Richmond County under Judge Panepinto, Judge Sunshine or Judge McElrath happens to be just innocent permissible conduct that I must deal with as a lone litigant and hope some judge somewhere will have the guts to pull the plug on the ongoing fraud on the court. The case has wended its way around a known and well articulated pattern of deception and manipulation by officers of the court and judges. An out of state litigant, my exhusband, who has repeatedly flaunted court orders and lied, cheated and destroyed my relationship with my children and still gets a green light to make a mockery of the system on your watch?

All of this falls squarely under your jurisdiction. Lest you forget the conveniently "lost" court documents in both Family Court and Supreme Court in my case which I have previously put you on notice of, I bring this again to your attention and ask for your help NOT in as you misapprehend it as legal advice but in putting your ethical enforcement foot down in a way that makes a difference and is timely.

What are you going to do about it besides try to scapegoat me with my employer, the Office of Court Administration as you attempted to do last week, and feign ignorance about your obligation to deal with the manifest problem of malfeasance and misconduct and or criminal behavior in Richmond County as described in my various messages to you?

You need to start seeing me as your ally as if I were undercover. What you are doing is causing me to be chewed up and spit out again and again by the forces of corruption in the system. Why are you not protecting me and "unfixing" the "fixed" case.

Respectfully,

Nora Renzulli

Ms. Renzulli

As I have explained to you in the past, I cannot give you legal advice.

Please take whatever action you deem appropriate. I would advise you to confer with an attorney concerning the legal proceedings in your case.

Dear Ms. Spatz:

The late Judge Vito Titone, my mentor, and the late Justice Louis Sangiorgio, another mentor must be rolling over in their graves at the way I have been treated by the court system.

Now that I learn another mother, Louise, is being played with in a cat and mouse game by the same Judge McElrath, who corruptly took away my children before I was even heard and never looked back, I am sickened.

There is a solution. Both of our cases need to be immediately extracted from Richmond County and sent to a fair and impartial judge elsewhere who will deal with the extrinsic fraud and void the fraudulent orders.

There is this legal vehicle available and request for relief on the table in both cases if your Office acts expeditiously to name, claim and deal with the wrongdoing which riddle our cases.
