Dear Professor,

Thank you again for your return call on Wednesday – and for your important law review article “Should We Pay Federal Circuit Judges More?” and op-ed letter “A raise that’s hard to justify”. As discussed, I have posted both on our website, www.judgewatch.org – accessible via the sidebar panel “Judicial Discipline-Federal” [click the webpage for Advocacy – “Correspondence with our Three Branches of Government”], as well as on our “Library” webpage.

I look forward to bringing your scholarship to the attention of Congress, etc. – and would appreciate your sending me the citation for the published law review article – and a pdf, if you have it.

Meantime, I have finished CJA’s letter to the 130 law school deans – responding to their February 14, 2007 letter to Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Leahy. A copy is attached for your convenience. Feel free to forward it to fellow scholars who share your commitment to evidence-based scholarship and dialog.

Thank you, again.
