Dear Ms. Carrier:

We are NOT "singling out two Democratic incumbents". The incumbents happen to be Democrats.

We have similarly challenged Republican incumbents, running for re-election -- such as N.Y. Governor George Pataki & N.Y. Attorney General Dennis Vacco. Our endless attempts to get the media to scrutinize the records in office of these Republican incumbents with respect to judicial selection and discipline are documented by our "Paper Trails" of correspondence with the press, accessible via the sidebar panel "Press Suppression".

To facilitate your examination of the readily-verifiable fact that our advocacy is completely NON-PARTISAN -- and that we challenge both Republicans and Democrats, who, moreover, are demonstrably collusive with each other in corrupting of the processes of judicial selection and discipline -- I enclose an illustrative sampling of our public interest ads & letters to the editor. A full collection can be accessed via the sidebar panel "published pieces".

I look forward to your now addressing the serious, substantial, and time-sensitive issues presented by my September 5th memo.

Thank you.
