Dear Yale Law Student Cleary --

Thank you for your prompt acknowledgment and referral of my December 27th memo to the pertinent student organizer.

I would very much like to directly speak with such student organizer -- and would appreciate if you would forward this e-mail to him so as to reinforce my desire to hear his response to my December 27th memo and to answer his questions about the referred-to substantiating primary-source documentary evidence posted on CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org.

Wishing you -- and your fellow Yale Law Students involved in the 14th Annual Rebellious Lawyering Conference -- a new year that will advance HONEST scholarship and media reporting about the federal judicial process appointment process, etc., without which its meaningful reform is an impossibility.

Regards.

Elena Sassower

Dear Ms. Sassower-

Thank you for your request and for the helpful information. We have forwarded your letter to the student who is organizing the panel on judicial confirmation since all Reblaw panels are organized by students other than conference directors. At this point, the panel organizer has likely already confirmed his panelists, but he may be in touch to talk further based on your offer.

We would also encourage you or someone from your organization to attend the conference, whether as panelist or participant, to share your experiences with others in attendance

Thanks again.
