Dear Ms. Sassower:

Please accept my apology for not having sent the materials the Center for Judicial Accountability had sent to me. I had understood that they had been sent. However, after receipt of a copy of your letter of June 13, 2003, I checked and found that the materials had not been sent. I sincerely apologize for this oversight and hope this oversight has not inconvenienced you. We have sent them tonight by overnight delivery.

Thank you,

Sheila S. Hollis
