Subject: Correcting Your Yesterday's Editorial: "Questions for Loretta Lynch" by a MAJOR NEWS STORY

Your yesterday's editorial "Questions for Loretta Lynch" (1/21/15) is seriously erroneous in stating "Ms. Lynch may well be confirmed and perhaps she should be."

Assuredly, you are unaware of the evidence of her corruption as U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of New York – and of her deficient, and possibly perjurious, responses to the confidential and public portions of the questionnaire she was required to complete for the Senate Judiciary Committee. This was the subject of an e-mail I sent to Washington Times reporter, S. A. Miller, six days ago – to which I have received NO response.

Below is that January 16th e-mail to Mr. Miller, with its link to the website of our non-partisan, non-profit citizens' organization, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc., posting my December 17, 2014 letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee and January 5, 2015 letter to President Obama – to which, likewise, there has been NO response. This includes to my statement:

"...the press has yet to report to the American People – that the Senate Judiciary Committee's own vetting is a fiction and its confirmation hearings essentially rigged to ensure confirmation, which it does by excluding opposition testimony from members of the public having dispositive evidence of nominee unfitness, such as corruption and ethics breaches." (Jan 5, 2015 letter, at p. 3).

Please read those letters – and ask Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Grassley and Ranking Member Leahy why I have not been "invited" to testify at next week's hearing – and why the ONLY letters the Committee has posted on its webpage pertaining to Ms. Lynch's confirmation [<http://www.judiciary.senate.gov/nominations/executive/pn2136-113>] are letters in favor.

Thank you.

Subject: Correcting & Updating Your Jan 7, 2015 article on AG nominee Loretta Lynch with a MAJOR NEWS STORY

Dear Mr. Miller,

Your article, "Obama's deportation amnesty trips up AG pick Loretta Lynch in confirmation talks" (Washington Times, 1/7/15), states: "The immigration issue appears to be the biggest stumbling block for Ms. Lynch, a veteran prosecutor who serves as the U.S. attorney for the Eastern District of New York".

Really? Who told you that? Senator David Vitter – the Republican Senate Judiciary Committee member whose comments appear to have given rise to your article – or Senator Orrin Hatch– the Committee's most senior Republican who you quote as saying that Ms. Lynch "appears to be a very top-flight person"? And did either of them reveal to you the evidence that is before the Committee of Ms. Lynch's corruption as U.S. Attorney – including the evidence concealed by her deficient, and possibly perjurious responses to the confidential and public portions of the questionnaire she was required to complete for the Committee? Such is an insurmountable "stumbling block" to her confirmation as Attorney General – preventing even a single YES vote.

Judge for yourself. Our non-partisan, non-profit citizens' organization, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA), presented the facts and evidence to the Senate Judiciary Committee by a December 17, 2014 letter and, thereafter, by a January 5, 2015 letter to President Obama, to which the Committee was an indicated recipient. Both letters – and the coverletters transmitting them to U.S. Attorney Lynch for response – are posted on our website, www.judgewatch.org, accessible via the prominent homepage link: "CJA's Citizen Opposition to Senate Confirmation of U.S. Attorney Loretta Lynch as U.S. Attorney General. Here's the direct link: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-federal/lynch/2014-opposition-lynch-ag.htm>."

I look forward to speaking with you directly and to answering your questions about this far-reaching and as-yet unreported major news story.

Thank you.
